WADF World Championship Athens 2026, presents a prestigious stage for dancers, coaches, and studio owners from around the globe to showcase their talent of their students but also their dedication, and passion for dance. This WADF granted title event celebrates the beauty of movement across all dance styles, providing a comprehensive opportunity for both amateurs of all ages and levels (Beginners - Rising Stars) and professional dancers to compete on an international stage for top honors.

- As a dancer, whether you specialize in ballet, jazz, hip-hop, contemporary, ballroom, Latin, or any other genre, this competition offers you the opportunity to perform in front of an international audience and a panel of distinguished judges. The competition is meticulously organized to ensure objective and fair results and to showcase the artistic and technical skills of each participant, making it an ideal venue for dancers seeking to elevate their craft and gain recognition in the dance community.
- The WADF World Championship Athens 2025 invites you to bring your expertise and coaching to the forefront as you guide and support your students on the dance floor. This competition is a unique and incomparable opportunity for you to exchange dance knowledge, choreographic ideas and new standards, since coaches and dancers from many different countries in Europe, Africa and Asia participate!
- Competitors will vie for the coveted WADF Grand Title, a recognition that signifies the pinnacle of dance achievement. The World Championship Title is not merely a trophy but a mark of distinction that echoes the commitment, artistry, and mastery of the winning dancers. Claiming this title is an honor that will reverberate through your students' amateur dance pursuits as well as your professional career.

Join us for an unforgettable experience where poise, rhythm, and artistry come alive on the world stage. Whether you are a competitor, coach, or studio owner, this competition promises to be a momentous occasion in your dance journey.
